Montreal, June 19, 2012 - Starting next fall, Séries+ viewers will have the chance to discover Quebec actress Rachelle Lefevre (Omertà, Twilight) in the series A Gifted Man !

Starring Patrick Wilson , this medical drama tells the story of Michael Hoyt, a neurosurgeon who works with a wealthy clientele. His life changes when he meets the ghost of his ex-wife. She asks her to intervene at the modest community health center where she practiced medicine.

In A Gifted Man , Rachelle Lefevre plays Kate Sykora, a young doctor hired by Michael to take over the clinic. The young woman is in the middle of divorce proceedings and will not leave the neurosurgeon indifferent.

The series, which consists of a single season of 16 episodes, aired on the CBS network. The first episode was directed by Jonathan Demme (The Silence of the Lambs) who is also one of the producers.

A Gifted Man will be presented at Séries+ on Thursdays at 8 p.m., starting August 30. As a reminder on Saturday at 11 p.m.

Séries+ is jointly owned by Astral and Shaw Communications
